Aromas Grange September Newsletter

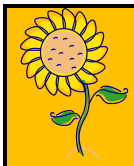
Aromas Harvest Fair

Transition Aromas invites you to the first annual Aromas Harvest Fair on Sunday, September 29, from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM in the Aromas Town Square Park at the corner of Blohm & Carpenteria. This is a free event, filled with fun filled activities for the whole family. Highlights of the fair include:

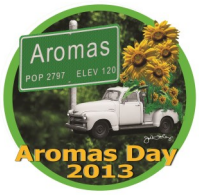
Zucchini races	Tomato tasting
Live music	Local harvest display
Arts & crafts	Heritage activities
Simple solar energy	Aromas photo display

Showcase of local food produces

For more information visit: www.Transition@Aromas.org



The Teressie White Memorial Scholarship Fund would like to thank all the people that donated such fabulous items to our silent auction and thank you to everyone that bid on those items. We raised approximately $1900. for scholarships and couldn't have done it without you! We're proud that 100% of what you give goes to the intended recipients.



Aromas Day T-Shirts

If you weren't able to purchase an Aromas Day t-shirt, you're in luck! Some are still available and the mediums are going to be re-ordered. The re-order must be paid in advance and be submitted to Jan Saxton (726-9906 or 277-8194) by Monday, Sept. 10th. The t-shirts are $15. and come in Adult Sm, Med, Lg, XL, 2XL and 3XL (cost for 2 & 3XL is $17.) Children's sizes are XSm, Sm, and Med. and cost $12.

We will accept credit cards, checks and cash.

Come and enjoy Swing Dancing and the 10th Street Band on Sunday, Sept. 29th from 2:00-4:30 p.m. Bring your own snack.

Community Potluck & Grange Meeting on Friday, Sept 13th.

Potluck at 6:30 PM and Meeting at 7:15 PM . Everyone encouraged & invited to attend.

Save the Date

Aromas Live!

Sat. ~ Oct. 26th~ 7 p.m.

Grange Breakfast

Sunday, Sept. 29

7:30—11:00 A.M.

$6.00

Kudos to our great breakfast crew for a job well done, especially on Aromas Day!